

First isolation of Lyme disease spirochete, Borrelia burgdorferi from blacklegged tick, Ixodes scapularis, collected at Rondeau Provincial Park, Ontario.

<https://arctichealth.org/en/permalink/ahliterature198916>

Author: M G Morshed
J D Scott
S N Banerjee
K. Fernando
R. Mann
J. Isaac-Renton

Author Affiliation: Vector-Borne Diseases Laboratory, BCCDC, Vancouver.

Source: Can Commun Dis Rep. 2000 Mar 15;26(6):42-4

Date: Mar-15-2000

Language: English
French

Publication Type: Article

Keywords: Animals
Arachnid Vectors - microbiology
Borrelia burgdorferi
Borrelia burgdorferi Group - isolation & purification
Female
Humans
Ixodes - microbiology
Lyme Disease - microbiology
Male
Ontario

PubMed ID: 10763556 View in PubMed 